

Amended December 6, 2007

The tenth meeting of the Committee of Six for the academic year 2007-2008 was called to order by President Marx in his office at 3:00 P.M. on Monday, November 12, 2007. Present were Professors Frank, S. George, Jagannathan, O'Hara, Servos, and Sinos, Dean Call, President Marx, and Assistant Dean Tobin, Recorder.

The Committee turned to personnel matters.

President Marx next discussed with the members several incidents of intolerance and hatefulness that have occurred on campus. He noted that disciplinary action would be taken against those who have violated College rules. The President, the Dean, and the Committee then considered steps that might be taken to address, more generally, issues of understanding, sensitivity, and respect on campus. Among the possibilities that were suggested were a letter to the community from the President; workshops, lectures, and an exhibition at the library; departmental meetings; and programming in the dormitories.

The meeting adjourned at 4:50 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Gregory S. Call
Dean of the Faculty
